1.4.49
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, January 29, 2006 2:17pm.
www.unc.bz

1. Who can see the Sonshine on My beloved?
Who can see the Son in My beloved?
Who can see what I am doing through My beloved?
Who will become My beloved?

2. Will you this day?
You who I choose?
You who listen/see/hear/read these words?
Yea will you let My words of love flow to you as I do My servant Ted?

3. Will you listen, will you care, will you value, will you write?
Will you sort, will you value/share/proclaim/publish?
And not be ashamed of?

4. Will you let Me sever connections of the past that deleterious are, and so detrimental to your sight real and true; and allow My truth to flow and taint not the process of you appearing Me? I love you.

5. Who can see the hand of My beloved in Me? Who can see the hand of Me in My beloved; yea our hearts knit together, and is there any difference? No, not one, yea none.

6. Who can see angst or anxiety of My heart? None; for it isn't there; but yea My peace, My peace, My peace I give to those now who see/see/see My beloved; see what I am doing with My beloved, in My beloved, and wanting My belovedness.

7. Become My beloved, to in fact be knit yea with Me in the womb, yea as once were; yea more now in the fullness.